Dear Dr. Kaur,

Sub:-"The recent outbreak of COVID-19 in pregnancy and its management" in the Indian Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology Research 2020.

Congratulations on publication of the review article quoted above. The publication is in a prestigious journal, topical and very well researched.

Off late publications from Santokba Durlabhji Memorial Hospital have increased. I rate your paper as one of the best from this Institution. Please continue to improve the academic environment in your department and the institution.

Thanking You,
Yours Sincerely,

Anoop Ranjan Varma
